

Health Sciences and Services Building (HSSB) is building 266, located across from the Medical Center Library, and at the intersection of Stanford Drive and Marble Avenue. Room 105 is the large conference room on the right side when walking through the main double doors. Room 166 is half way down the long hallway, on the right side. Parking is available at the large medical parking lot (M Lot) long Tucker Road (off of Stanford Drive). No parking permit is required on the weekends. Please do not park in the reserved parking spaces.
